Dear Sir or Madam:

The court's records show that you have no case pending in this court.

You must include a case name and case number on every documents, letters, applications, motions, requests, etc. sent to the court with your full name if you would like this court to update your records.

Prisoners in state custody who wish to complain of violations of their civil rights may file a lawsuit in federal court seeking relief; however, the Court cannot act on informal letters, documents, applications, motions, narratives, requests, etc. You must file a formal complaint to initiate a lawsuit.

In order for your complaint to be filed, it must be signed and accompanied by the required filing fee of $350.00. If you are financially unable to submit the filing fee, you must complete and sign the in forma pauperis affidavit included with your complaint.

The Court does not provide legal advice or legal material and can not answer legal questions. You may attach a request for appointment of counsel to the complaint at the time you file it.

Be sure to name specific defendants and to set forth specific facts which you believe show how your civil rights were violated by each defendant you name. Your complaint should be legible. The court does not require that your complaint or any other papers be typewritten, but they must be legible or they will be returned to you.

Sincerely,

Writ Clerk
